

Love never fails...v8

The Importance of Love

1 Corinthians 13:1-3

Life is all about Loving Others!

The Way to Love Others

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

Patient and kind - Greek word for patience here is: makrothumeo it literally means long suffering.

The Greek word for “kind” means “to show oneself useful.”

Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude –

Jealousy comes from the word “to boil.”

Boasting has the connotation of “play the braggart.”

Pride – the same word in chapter 8 – “knowledge puffs up.” It means to inflate.

Rude – The word here is “unshapely”.

It is NEVER right to treat someone wrong.

Does not demand its own way – Other translations: “Self-seeking” or to Worship yourself...

Is not irritable – or easily angered. It means to “exasperate.”

Keeps no record of being wronged –

Does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices when the truth wins out

Love never gives up – never loses faith – bears all things, protects - means to “roof over”.

Love always trusts – means to “put your faith in” something

Love always hopes – means “to confide in”

Love endures through every circumstance – “preservers” means “to stay under.”

Love never fails – It never gives up. It doesn’t die.
