

AT THE MOVIES: WEEK 2 | Chris Moghtaderi - 8/21/22

But as I looked at everything I'd worked so hard to accomplish, it was all so meaningless—like chasing the wind...

— Ecclesiastes 2:11

Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will find it.”

— Matthew 16:24-25

“Don't be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes.”

Waypoint of action: Think about the amount of time you spend each day. Every energy or effort you expel is part of the “fight.” What are you fighting for? Are you fighting for what is important? Fight for what lasts and fight for what matters to God.

TALK IT OVER

Discuss these questions with someone – maybe a family member, friend, or member of your LifeGroup. Use a communication method that works best for your situation.

1. What is your favorite outfit and why?
2. As a kid, what did you want to be when you grew up? If you could do something now, what would it be?
3. The Pareto Principle is also known as the 80-20 rule. When we think about the church and 80% of the work in the church is done by 20% of the people, what would happen if 80% of the people decided to do the work of the ministry? How are you participating in the work of the ministry?
4. Many will give up the 80% they do have for the missing 20%. How could you be better focused and grateful for the 80%?
5. Ignacio found that by losing his life (no longer fighting for himself but rather for the kids, he finds his life.

Pray: Read, and take some time to pray for one another.

Memory Verse for August: Ephesians 4:32
